TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT 22, 1863

Sick and Disgusted with Rebellion

The Sacramento Union publishes a long letter reported to have been written by R. S. Donnell, Speaker of the House of Commons, of North Carolina, aided by P. B. Sutter [illegible], President of the Governor's Council, and to have been published with the approval of Governor Vance. We cannot quote it in full, for lack of room, but we extract some passages of serious consequence. After referring to the state of the country in 1860, the article proceeds:

The greatest cause of complaint was that a man opposed to the extension of slavery in the territories had been elected President of the United States, according to the forms of the Constitution which he was sworn to defend and protect, and who disclaimed any other than constitutional means in the accomplishment of his objects. Under such circumstances it seems that if they had labored under any real grievance, their course was plain. They should have taken the course of our revolutionary fathers. When the States assembled in convention, instead of [illegible] at once to declare their independence—for the idea of secession, peaceable [illegible] as Pollard says, to have exploded—and given up the ghost—they should clearly have set forth their grievances, and demanded redress in respectful, yet firm and decided terms. They should have exhausted every constitutional means of obtaining guarantees—if any were needed—by representation, by remonstrance, by petition and failing in all these, they should have then, as our revolutionary sires did, fight for their rights until driven out of it. Such a course would have procured for us as it did for our fathers the respect, the sympathy, and the assistance of other nations. Instead of that, we have [illegible] Europe. But such was not the course which these—in their own estimation—wise statesmen chose to pursue. When such a course was suggested or recommended to them they evaded it by a long list of magnificent promises, which looked so splendid as almost to dazzle the mind with their brilliancy.

[illegible] they promised that if perchance war should ensue it would be a very short war, that it would not last six months—that the Yankees would not fight—that one Southerner could whip from ten to [illegible] of them—that England and France [illegible] recognize us and render us every assistance we might desire—that whatever might be their abstract opinions of the subject of slavery, their interests would impel them to promote its permanency in the Southern States, that if, after all they should not be disposed to assist us, Cotton was King and would soon bring all the crowned heads of Europe on their knees in supplication to us [illegible] compel them to raise the blockade—should [illegible] be established—in thirty days, in sixty days, in ninety days, in one hundred and twenty days, in [illegible] months, in one year at furthest.

Thirdly—They promised us that all the slave States except Delaware would join the Southern Confederacy—that slavery should not only be perpetuated in the States, but that it should be extended into all the territories in which the negro could live, that all the grievances occasioned by the non-execution of the Fugitive Slave Law should be speedily redressed that slave property should be established upon a basis as safe as that of landed property.

Fourthly—They promised us that the new Government should be a mere Confederacy of States, of absolute sovereignty and equal rights; that the State should be tyrannized over by no such "central [illegible]" as the old Government at Washington; that the glorious doctrine of State rights and [illegible] taught by Jefferson and Calhoun [illegible] in the new Confederacy; that the sovereign equality of the States and their judicial decision should be sacredly respected.

Fifthly—they promised us the early and permanent establishment of the wealthiest and best Government on earth, whose credit should be better than that of any other nation, whose prosperity and happiness should be the envy of the civilized world.

[illegible] on their promises what have been their performances? Instead of secession being peaceable, as they promised that it would, it has given rise to such a war as has never before desolated any country since the barbarians of the North overran the Roman Empire.

So far from the war's ending in six months, as they said it would should it ensue, it has already lasted more than two years, and if their policy is to be pursued it will last more than two years longer; and notwithstanding their predictions, the Yankees have fought on many occasions with a spirit and determination worthy of their ancestors of the Revolution—worthy of the descendants of those austere old Puritans whose heroic spirit and religious zeal made Oliver Cromwell's army the terror of the civilized world—or of those French Huguenots who thrice in the sixteenth century contended with heroic spirit and various fortunes against all the genius of the house of Lorraine, and all the power of the house of Valois. England and France have not recognized us—have not raised the blockade—have not shown us any sympathy, nor is there any probability that they ever will, and that Cotton is not King is now universally acknowledged. Maryland has not joined the Confederacy, nor has Kentucky nor Missouri, ever really been with us. Slavery has not only not been perpetuated in the States, nor extended into the Territories, but Missouri has passed an act of emancipation, and Maryland is ready to do so rather than give up her place in the Union and the last hope of obtaining one foot of the Territories for the purpose of extending slavery has departed from Confederacy forever. The grievances caused by some of the Northern States to execute the Fugitive Slave Law have not only not been remedied, but more slaves have been lost to the South forever since secession was inaugurated than would have escaped from their masters in the Union for five centuries. And how have they kept their promise that they would respect the sovereignty and rights of the States? Whatever the Government may be in theory in fact we have a grand consolidation, which almost entirely ignores the existence of the States, and disregards the decisions of their highest tribunals. The great central despotism at Washington, as they were pleased to call it, was at any time previous to the commencement of the secession movement, and even for some time after it had commenced, a most mild and beneficent Government compared with the central despotism at Richmond, under which we are now living.

Instead of an early and permanent establishment of "the wealthiest and best government in the world," with unbounded credit, what have we got? In spite of all the victories which they profess to have obtained over the Yankees, they have lost the States of Missouri, Kentucky, Arkansas, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee, and in my humble opinion have lost them forever, and in all probability, Alabama will soon be added to the number. This will leave the Confederacy but five States out of the original thirteen, and of these five the Yankees have possession of many of the most important points and one third of their territory. So far the Yankees have never failed to hold every place of importance which they have taken and present indications are that Charleston will soon be added to the number. The campaign of General Lee into Pennsylvania [illegible] which has become to us a [illegible] of the past, the tide [illegible]

As to our unbounded credit based [illegible] of King Cotton [illegible] to speak. [illegible] of the Confederacy have been [illegible] the Government itself repudiating in some cases its most solemn obligations [illegible] that the [illegible]

[illegible] regards their promise to go to the war and spill the last drop of their blood in the cause [illegible] I will say nothing [illegible] North Carolina [illegible] that [illegible] a few honorable exceptions will remain light not [illegible]

What a deplorable spectacle does the [illegible] present [illegible] North would [illegible] guarantees on the slavery question [illegible] stated that not one of the conventions of the seven Cotton States ever demanded any guarantee whatever. Nay, they considered [illegible] that their friends of the Border States would procure it for them.

But it will be said that these guarantees could not have been obtained from the North. This I admit to be true and only refer to this piece of history to prove that whatever might have been obtained nothing would have been accepted. But the Congress of the United States did pass by the requisite two thirds majority the [illegible] of Mr. Corwin from the committee of twenty six to so amend the Constitution as to perpetuate slavery in the States. What stronger guarantees could be given so far as the States were concerned, it would be difficult to conceive. What then would have been left to quarrel about? The Territories. During the session of Congress which closed on the 4th of March 1861 acts were passed to provide temporary Governments for the three remaining territories, to wit, Colorado, Nevada and Dacotah. These acts contain no trace or indication of the Wilmot Proviso nor any other provision against the introduction of slavery, but on the other hand expressly declare, among other things, that no law shall be passed impairing the rights of private property nor shall any discrimination be made in taxing different kinds of private property, nor shall any discrimination be made in taxing different kinds of property but all property subject to taxation shall be in proportion to the value of the property taxed.

Now when it is considered that all three of these Territories are North of 36 deg 30 min, and that in the new Territories now owned by the United States such of that kind slavery actually exists and is recognized by the Territorial [illegible] may well be asked. What was there worth quarreling, much less fighting about?" [illegible] was a settlement of the question in the Territories made by a Republican Congress which gave the South all that up to the time of the Chicago Convention she had ever asked, and far more than she could hope to gain, in any event by secession. Indeed I think it must now be apparent that if secession could have been effected peaceably, would have been no remedy for the grievances of which they complained. Nay, so far as any grievances arising from a failure to obtain a return of our fugitive slaves was concerned, I think it must [illegible] be apparent to all would have been an aggravation instead of a remedy for the evil. I think all calm and dispassionate men every where are now ready to admit that it would have been far better for us to have accepted the terms offered to us and [illegible] than to have plunged the [illegible] into the horrors of this revolutionary war, which has spread a pall over the whole land—has brought mourning into every family—has [illegible] thousands of hearth stones desolate—has filled the land with maimed and disabled [illegible] widows and orphans and squalid poverty—has [illegible] our poor houses and alms houses—has swept away many hundreds of thousands of lives and many hundreds of millions of treasure, only to end the [illegible] for which they profess to have gone to war [illegible] a thousand times greater jeopardy than ever before.

Such being the condition into which they have brought the country the question presents itself "Is there any remedy?" A full complete and adequate remedy there is not, for what can restore the loved ones lost—repair at once the desolation or remove immediately the mourning from our land? Yet there is a remedy, which, with the helping hand of time, will accomplish [illegible] very much, indeed, and which with the energy that usually follows desolating wars will perhaps remove most of its traces in a half century. This remedy is peace, speedy peace! But they say that we are so situated that no proposition for peace can be made by us; that, having proclaimed our independence, we must fight until it is voluntarily acknowledged by the United States, or until we are completely subjugated. On the meeting of the British Parliament, which took place on the 13th of December, 1792, the King, in his speech to the two Houses, intimated his intention of going to war with the French Republic. On moving the address in answer to the speech a memorable debate arose. On this occasion Charles Fox delivered one of those powerful speeches which have won for him a name immortal, which have forever stamped him as the ablest of British debaters, and the first of British statesmen. In the course of that speech he said: "But we now disdain to negotiate. Why? Because we have no Minister at Paris. Why have we no Minister there? Because France is a Republic! And so we are to pay in blood and treasure of the people for a punctilio! The road of common sense is simple, plain and direct. That of pride and punctilio is as tangled as it is serpentine. In the impassioned language of Fox, I would ask are we to pay in blood and treasure of the people for punctilio? Shall we pursue the path of pride and punctilio which is as tangled as it is serpentine, or shall we take the simple plain and direct road of common sense, which only leads to the happiest results? Four fifths of the people of that portion of North Carolina bordering for many miles on the Yadkin river, and, I believe, of the whole State, are in favor of the latter course.

The one great demand of the people of this part of the State is peace, peace upon any terms that will not enslave and degrade us. They may perhaps prefer that the independence of the South should be acknowledged, but this they believe cannot now be obtained nor in viewing the situation of affairs, do they see much hope of it in the future. They naturally ask, with [illegible] of recruiting to any extent, we cannot be [illegible] against the armies which the Yankees have now in the field, how can we meet them with their hosts of fresh levies which will soon be in the field while they can keep their army recruited to a great extent up to its maximum number, by adventurers who are constantly arriving in their ports from every country in Europe? But independence cannot be obtained then they are for any terms that are honorable—any terms do not degrade us. They would be willing to compromise upon the amendment proposed by Corwin from the Committee of Twenty six perpetuating slavery in the States, which I have before alluded. But in what [illegible] shall be made, or the movement inaugurated I leave to wiser men and more experienced than myself to propose. I would, however, suggest to the people to elect members to the next Congress who are in favor of an armistice of six months and in the meantime, of submitting all the matters in dispute to a Convention of delegates from all the States North and South the delegates to be elected by the people themselves, in such manner as may be agreed on by the two parties. Others here are who are that the people of North Carolina should be consulted in their sovereign capacity through a Convention—that the Legislature should submit the question of Convention or no Convention to the people, as was done in February, 1861. Such a Convention would undoubtedly speak the sentiments of the people of the State, citizens as well as soldiers, as all would be consulted. But I propose nothing definite and only make these suggestions to bring the matter before the public. I would however most earnestly appeal to the friends of humanity throughout the State to use their utmost efforts to procure as speedily as possible an honorable peace. In the name of religion, of suffering humanity, and of the religion which we profess would I appeal to the public men and statesmen of North Carolina, and especially to that [illegible] statesman who possesses in a greater degree than all others the confidence of the people of the State and who has recently been elevated to a high place in the Confederate Government, to lend a helping hand and use their influence to bring about an honorable peace. And lastly I would appeal to the ministers and professors of our holy religion to pray constantly without cessation of terms—to Almighty God for an honorable peace.

Having but recently occupied a large space in [illegible] of people [illegible] I will [illegible] ask you to publish this [illegible]

[illegible] your fellow citizen, with [illegible] and will, [illegible] expressing my [illegible] to you,

DAVIDSON

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to September 16.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept 15.—The transport from Hilton Head, S. C., reports the arrival there of the relief boat Cosmopolitan, which left Morris Island Thursday evening the 11th, at which time a white flag was floating from Fort Moultrie, and our forces had captured all of James Island. Our monitors were lying between Fort Sumter and Moultrie. Capt. Briggs' relief boat passed Charleston Bar at [illegible] P. M. on Saturday and saw the white flag still flying on Moultrie. The last gun fired from Moultrie was on Tuesday afternoon.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF POTOMAC, Sept 15.—Pleasanton advanced to the Rapidan where the rebels were in position with infantry and cavalry to prevent our re-crossing. Our casualties yesterday were two killed and [illegible] wounded, among the latter was General Custer, commanding a brigade of Kilpatrick's division. He was wounded while gallantly charging the enemy, in which attack three guns were captured.

NEW YORK, Sept 15.—Special dispatches say the Mexican Minister at Washington for Mexico, placing his [illegible] in the hands of the Peruvian Minister. He claims to be still representative of the Juarez Government.

Richmond papers say the publication of the Raleigh Standard will be resumed in a few days.

The Richmond Enquirer has the following: Gov. Vance, of N. C., has issued a proclamation called forth by lawless and treason able menaces, made at the so-called peace meetings held in that State. He warns the people of the dangerous consequences of a persistence in their course, beseeching them to abstain from any further resistance to the enforcement of the conscription and the law for the collection of taxes, and exhorts them to abandon the miserable demonstrations they are making of resistance to the laws which will be enforced.

CINCINNATI, Sept 15.—In the capture of Chattanooga, we took two steamboats, and thirty pontoons, very few stores, and no artillery or prisoners. The works are very strong.

PORTLAND, ME., Sept 15.—Returns from 182 towns give Curry, the Republican candidate, 14,000 majority. The same towns last year gave the Republicans a majority of a little over 4,000. This includes about five eighths of the aggregate vote of the State. The towns to be heard from, gave the Republicans last year a majority. The increase in the vote over last year is about 25,000. The House will stand about 100 Republicans to 80 Democrats. The Senate will be probably unanimous Republican.

NEW YORK, Sept 15.—The Times' special dispatch, says it is reported that the rebels have six vessels of war at Richmond, some of which are said to be clad with railroad iron, and modeled like the Merrimac.

Gen. Gilmore has been promoted to Major of Engineers in the regular army.

CAIRO, Sept. 15.—From below, we learn that the marine brigade captured at Bolivar, three rebel paymasters with thirty men and $2,000,000, to pay the troops at Little Rock.

MEMPHIS, Sept 13.—The cavalry and mounted infantry of the 16th army corps, under direction of Gen Crary, have been active during the past week, going as far South as Tallahatchie, and stampeding rebel cavalry into Grenada and Okolona. Gen Crary is the one who scattered the rebels in the vicinity of Jackson, and captured the rebel mail with correspondence confirming the reports that Johnston was reinforcing Bragg.

RAPPAHANNOCK, Sept 14.—Citizens of Culpepper say that Stuart with 6,000 rebel cavalry was there on Saturday.

CINCINNATI, Sept 15.—A Leavenworth dispatch says Gen. Blunt at last accounts was at Fort Gibson, preparing to start for Fort Scott. In the recent campaign he marched 250 miles in nine days, fought two battles and reclaimed from the rebels 1,000,000 square miles of territory. Refugees from rebel conscription were coming into Blunt's lines by hundreds. More than 100 Union men have been shot and hung at Fort Smith since the rebellion broke out. Fort Smith will be the headquarters of operations during the coming winter.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—President Lincoln will soon issue a proclamation suspending the writ of habeas corpus in all cases arising in military circles. This matter was considered and resolved upon at a Cabinet meeting today.

NEW YORK, Sept 15.—The Roanoke with dates from Havana to the 9th and Vera Cruz to the 7th has arrived. There was a great scarcity of food in Mexico. The Peruvian Minister had received his passports and was ordered to leave the country for having written to Juarez. It was rumored that Minister Corwin had been tendered his passports. This is not confirmed. The French convoy from the City of Mexico to Vera Cruz was captured by guerrillas near Soledad. The greater part of the guard were killed.

NEW YORK, Sept 16th.—A dispatch from Cyrus W. Field, dated London, Sept. 5th, says at a meeting of directors of the Atlantic Telegraph Company the offer of Glass & Elliott to manufacture and lay down in the summer of next year, a good submarine telegraph cable between Ireland and Newfoundland was unanimously adopted.

Last evening's Post says, we heard to-day of the shipment for Palmyra of the first one hundred tons of railroad iron for the Union Pacific Railroad eastern division.

A late Charleston Mercury says the rebel casualties in the struggle for the possession of Morris Island amounted to 700 killed, wounded and missing.

A special says the department feels assured that the late pamphlet on Mexican affairs, written with the view of the recognition of the Southern Confederacy, did not emanate from any important personage in France.

WASHINGTON, Sept 15.—Gen King has arrested all male secesh at Fairfax Court house and vicinity, and sent them to the Old Capitol prison. Among them are several leading men, who took active part in forcing the State into rebellion.

Last Monday morning, as a party of fugitive negroes were making their way to Washington from their masters' homes in Ann Arundel and Calvert counties through Centreville a patrol consisting of citizens from Prince George county attempted to stop them. The slaves resisted, and some of them being armed with old flint lock muskets, attempted to use them but the muskets hung fire and wouldn't go. The patrolers then fired on the negroes wounding five, two of them badly. Other parties coming to the aid of the patrolers, most of the negroes were secured and carried off by their masters who had by this time overtaken them.

NEW YORK, Sept 16.—The Times special says Gen. Pleasanton reached Rapidan river at Raccoon ford, Monday afternoon, after considerable skirmishing between Culpepper and that point. Up to that time no rebel infantry had been met with, though a heavy force of rebel cavalry had been driven back by our forces. Fighting was going on at Raccoon ford on Monday, the enemy stubbornly resisting all attempts to cross. It was supposed a force of rebel infantry was at that point, to resist our attempt [illegible] telegraphs from Fortress Monroe that the bulk of the rebel cavalry and army are at Richmond, where Lee's headquarters now are, and that there is [illegible] Meade's front. Pleasanton will probably ascertain the correct situation of the rebel army in a day or two. Trains [illegible] run to Culpepper from Washington, carrying supplies to our troops. Gen. [illegible] that Lee's army has been sent away, part towards Charleston, and part toward Chattanooga. This is now generally received opinion.

The steamer Mary Sanford from Charleston Bar on the night of the 12th, arrived [illegible] dispatches to the government, and [illegible] the [illegible] rebels have two 15 inch guns. Fort Sumter is still garrisoned and flies the rebel flag [illegible] the fort [illegible] made to take it since the [illegible] repulse. The monitor Patapsco has [illegible] repairs.

LA GRANDE.—A town with this name is fast building up, and becoming an important trading point. It is located immediately at the foot of the mountains, and being in the direct line of all the travel that goes by way of Umatilla Landing, must become a place of considerable importance. It already numbers seventy-five buildings, many of them business houses, and is growing rapidly. This new town is the point of supply for the settlers in Grande Ronde Valley, and this together with the trade of comers and goers will always keep it a living place.

WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS.—Man Lee, the Chinaman arrested a day or two since by Marshal Clark on suspicion of being one of the party which stole some money from Messrs. Carr & Andrews, at La Grande, was brought before his Honor L. D. Shattuck, Judge of this Circuit, at Chambers, yesterday, upon a writ of habeas corpus sued out by Wa Kee, a China merchant of this city. The Court after hearing the evidence and arguments on the case, discharged the prisoner.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Charles Mathews was brought before Recorder McCoy, yesterday and acknowledged that he had taken just a little too much of the essence of rye which made him rather boisterous. He was relieved of five dollars and costs and sent on his way rejoicing.

Peter Raymon was also brought before this Court, charged with larceny, but the complaint was withdrawn.

KEEP IT UP.—The Street Commissioner, yesterday, set the property holders at work cleaning the streets in front of their premises, which gives our streets a clean and healthy appearance for one day at least. This is a good move in the right direction, and we hope it will be kept up. We would suggest to our Commissioner, while he is around cleaning up, that he examine a number of yards, and especially the China wash houses, where all manner of filth and slops is poured under the floors of their buildings causing an intolerable stench in their vicinity.

EMIGRANTS ARRIVED.—Some forty five emigrants arrived on the Hunt last evening. They seemed to be enjoying good health and spirits, and are going up the valley.

GOLD DUST.—100 pounds of gold dust was brought down by Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger, last evening, on the Wilson G. Hunt.

THEATRE.—Notwithstanding there were two other places of amusement open last night, there was a large audience present at the Theater, to witness the celebrated play of "The Stranger," in which Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne personated the great character of Mrs. Haller almost to perfection, while Mr. Waldron's rendition of the Stranger was excellent. To-night, Bulwer's magnificent drama of the "Lady of Lyons" will be presented, Mrs. Hayne as Pauline, Miss Mitchell as Widow Melnotte, and Mr. Waldron as Claude. The play is familiar to most of our theater goers, and is the most beautiful play we have ever witnessed.

WAR! WAR!! WAR!!!—Wisely's celebrated War Diorama will open to-night at the Opera House.

THE ORDER PROTECTING BLACK SOLDIERS.—The order of the President, giving notice that any wrongs done to our soldiers by the enemy will be atoned for by the rebel prisoners in our hands, is accepted by every one as just and proper. It means protection to our negro soldiers, and such protection the government was bound in all honor to furnish. Having induced the blacks to enlist as soldiers, the government must require for them at the hands of the rebels such treatment as the laws of war make proper for its white soldiers to receive. There are rumors that our negro soldiers have not thus far been treated as the laws of war require—that at Port Hudson no negro prisoners could be found when the place surrendered, though a number of Union negroes had been taken prisoners during the siege, and that at James Island the enemy gave no quarter to the blacks. These rumors have grown almost into certainty, and humanity as well as self-respect required some action on the part of the government like that which has now been taken. When the rebels understand that their own Southerners can be hung and shot as well as our negro troops they will hardly be disposed to continue a trade in which one of the chivalry is as cheap as a despised "nigger."

CAN THE PRESIDENT RE-ENSLAVE FREEDMEN?—The Washington Chronicle is permitted to make the following extract from a letter of Robert J. Walker (now in England) to a friend in that city. We are glad to know that there is not the slightest reason to believe that President Lincoln has any thought of recalling the Emancipation Proclamation, or that he will be a party to the re-enslavement of the freedmen made free by the Proclamation.

"Since the victory at Gettysburg, and the fall of Vicksburg and Port Hudson, suggestions appear that President Lincoln should recall the Emancipation Proclamation. This would ruin the cause here. The Proclamation was legal and as such it did emancipate the slaves, and they are now free. How can Mr. Lincoln re-enslave them? The past is irrevocable even by Almighty power. Besides, it would be a breach of faith to the slaves and in view of their bearing in battle, equally unwise and unjust."

THE STORY OF TWO BULLETS.—The Vicksburg correspondent of the Missouri Republican narrates the following singular incident:

I lately saw at the headquarters of [illegible] Slack's brigade two Minie bullets which [illegible] once told a history. One was [illegible] of English manufacture, smuggled [illegible] our dear brethren in Britain [illegible] brethren in America. The other was [illegible] national ball of the Springfield [illegible] former was fired from a rifle [illegible] our skirmishers. The latter was fired [illegible] our line of skirmishers at the [illegible] met midway in the air, were welded [illegible] compact and full human [illegible] They are now firm friends, sticking [illegible] the other closer than a brother [illegible]

KENNEDY'S CORNER, Wayne Co., Ind., Oct. 5, 1863.

Messrs. A. L. Scovill & Co:—I write to let you know what BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA has done for me. Last January I was attacked with Inflammatory Rheumatism, attended with great pain. I became bed-ridden, and was helpless as a child! The pain was so great when I moved that it seemed as if it would take my very life! In this way I suffered for seven long weeks or more, and thought that I could never recover. I was recommended to try BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA, and I did so. I took it internally, and had my body rubbed freely with it as long as I could bear, several times a day. My pains began to give way immediately on using the medicine, and I began to have strength and appetite, and am able to be about again. It has been a great blessing to me in relieving my sufferings. WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS.—Man Lee, the Chinaman arrested a day or two since by Marshal Clark, on suspicion of being one of the party which stole some money from Messrs. Curry & Andrews, at La Grande, was brought before his Honor E. D. Shattuck, Judge of this Circuit, at Chambers, yesterday, upon a writ of habeas corpus sued out by Wo Kee, a China merchant of this city. The Court, after hearing the evidence and arguments on the case, discharged the prisoner.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Charles Mahon was brought before Recorder McCoy, yesterday, and acknowledged that he had taken just a little too much of the essence of rye which made him rather boisterous. He was relieved of five dollars and costs, and sent on his way rejoicing.

Peter Raymon was also brought before this Court, charged with larceny, but the complaint was withdrawn.

KEEP IT UP.—The Street Commissioner, yesterday, set the property holders at work cleaning the streets in front of their premises, which gives our streets a clean and healthy appearance for one day at least. This is a good move in the right direction, and we hope it will be kept up. We would suggest to our Commissioner, while he is around cleaning up, that he examine a number of yards, and especially the China wash houses, where all manner of filth and slop is poured under the floors of their buildings, causing an intolerable stench in their vicinity.

EMIGRANTS ARRIVED.—Some forty-five emigrants arrived on the Hunt last evening. They seemed to be enjoying good health and spirits, and are going up the valley.

GOLD DUST.—100 pounds of gold dust was brought down by Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger, last evening, on the Wilson G. Hunt.

THEATER.—Notwithstanding there were two other places of amusement open last night, there was a large audience present at the Theater, to witness the celebrated play of "The Stranger," in which Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne personated the great character of Mrs. Haller almost to perfection, while Mr. Waldron's rendition of the Stranger was excellent. To-night, Bulwer's magnificent drama of the "Lady of Lyons" will be presented, Mrs. Hayne as Pauline, Miss Mitchell as Widow Melnotte, and Mr. Waldron as Claude. The play is familiar to most of our theater goers, and is the most beautiful play we have ever [illegible]

WAR! WAR!! WAR!!!—Wisely's celebrated War Drama will open to night at the Opera House.

THE ORDER PROTECTING BLACK SOLDIERS.—The order of the President, giving notice that any wrongs done to our soldiers by the enemy will be atoned for by the rebel prisoners in our hands, is accepted by every one as just and proper. It means protection to our negro soldiers, and such protection the government was bound in all honor to furnish. Having induced the blacks to enlist as soldiers, the government must require for them at the hands of the rebels such treatment as the laws of war make proper for its white soldiers. There are rumors that our negro troops have not thus far been treated as the laws of war require—that at Port Hudson no negro prisoners could be found when the place [illegible], though a number of Union negroes had been taken prisoners during the siege, and that at James Island the enemy gave no quarter to the blacks. These rumors have grown almost into certainty, and humanity as well as self-respect required some action on the part of the government like that which has now been taken. When the rebels understand that their own Southerners can be hung and shot as well as our negro troops, they will hardly be disposed to continue a trade in which one of the chivalry is as cheap as a despised "nigger."

CAN THE PRESIDENT RE-ENSLAVE FREEDMEN?—The Washington Chronicle is permitted to make the following extract from a letter of [illegible] J. Walker (now in England) to a friend in that city. We are glad to know that there is not the slightest reason to believe that President Lincoln has any thought of recalling the Emancipation Proclamation, or that he will be a party to the re-enslavement of the freedmen made free by the Proclamation:

"Since the victory at Gettysburg, and the fall of Vicksburg and Port Hudson, suggestions appear that President Lincoln should recall the Emancipation Proclamation. This would ruin the cause here. The Proclamation was legal, and as such it did emancipate the slaves, and they are now free. How can Mr. Lincoln re-enslave them? The past is irrevocable even by Almighty power. Besides, it would be a breach of faith to the slaves, and, in view of their heroic conduct in battle, equally unwise and unjust."

THE STORY OF TWO BULLETS.—The Vicksburg correspondent of the Missouri Republican narrates the following singular incident:

I lately saw at the headquarters of Colonel Black's brigade, two Minie bullets which once told a history. One was a [illegible] of English manufacture, smuggled [illegible] our dear brethren in Britain to sh[illegible] brethren in America. The other was a National ball of the Springfield rifle type. The former was fired from a rifle pit at Jackson at our skirmishers. The latter was fired from the line of skirmishers at the rifle pit. They met midway in the air, were welded by the compact and fell harmlessly to the ground. They are now firm friends, sticking each to the other closer than a brother or a lover.

Messrs. A. L. Scovill & Co.—Friends: It is with pleasure that I write you and let you know the result of DR. MOTT'S PILLS on my daughter. In Every Age of the World the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not so to the legal profession that we look for reform in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of new or reform among physicians. [illegible] prefer to adhere to time-honored opinions and established usage. Hence the apathy which most of them manifest to the numerous private remedies, whatever their acknowledged virtue, or great efficacy in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than DR. SHALLENBERGER'S INDIA HOLAGOGUE. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system is acknowledged by all. Do you prefer a speedy and effectual cure to a regular and scientific run of disease? Try the Cholagogue, and the object is accomplished. Then tell your suffering neighbor what it has done for you, that it may do the same for him.

Read what amount of Pain and Suffering can be saved by the use of DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA: KENNEDY'S CORNER, Wayne Co., Ind., Oct. 3, 1863.

Messrs. A. L. SCOVILL & Co.—I write to let you know what BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA has done for me. Last January I was attacked with Inflammatory Rheumatism, attended with great pain. I became bed-ridden, and was helpless as a child. The pain was so great when I moved that it seemed as if it would take my very life. In this way I suffered for seven long weeks or more, and thought that I could never recover. I was recommended to try BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA, and I did so. I took it internally, and had my body rubbed freely with it as long as I could bear, several times a day. My pains began to give way immediately on using the medicine, and I began to have strength and appetite, and am able to be about again. It has been a great blessing to me in relieving my sufferings.

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 22, 1863.

Sick and Disgusted with Rebellion

The Sacramento Union publishes a long letter [illegible] to have been written by K. S. [illegible], Speaker of the House of Commons of North Carolina, addressed to F. B. Satterthwait, President of the Governor's Council, and to have been published with the approval of Governor Vance. We cannot quote it in full for lack of room, but we extract some passages [illegible] consequence. After reference to the state of the country in 1860 the article proceeds:

The greatest cause of complaint was that a man opposed to the extension of slavery in the territories had been elected President of the United States, [illegible] of the terms of the Constitution which [illegible] to [illegible] and protect, and who [illegible] other than constitutional means in the [illegible] of his objects. Under such circumstances it seems that if they had labored under [illegible] their course was plain. They should have taken the course of our revolutionary fathers. When the States assembled in convention [illegible] to declare their independence [illegible] for the idea of secession, peaceable [illegible] have explained [illegible] ghost—they should clearly [illegible] what their grievances were [illegible] in respectful yet firm and decided language. They should have exhausted every constitutional means of obtaining guarantees—if any were needed [illegible] remonstrance by petition and failing in all these, this should have done [illegible] revolutionary sires did [illegible] out of it. Such a course would have procured for us as it did for our fathers the respect, the sympathy and the assistance of other nations [illegible] in Europe. But such was not the course which these—in their own estimation—wise statesmen chose to pursue. When such a course was suggested or recommended to them they evaded it by a long list of magnificent promises which looked so splendid as almost to dazzle the mind with their brilliancy.

[illegible]—they promised that if perchance war should ensue it would be a very short war, that it would not last six months—that the Yankees would [illegible] fight—that one Southerner could whip from [illegible] of them—that England and France would [illegible] to us and render us every assistance we might desire—that whatever might be their abstract opinions on the subject of slavery their interests would impel them to promote its perpetuity in the Southern States; that if after all [illegible] should not be disposed to assist us, Cotton was King and would soon bring all the crowned heads of Europe on their knees in supplication to us [illegible] them to raise the blockade—should one be established—in thirty days, in sixty days, in ninety days, in one hundred and twenty days, in six months, in nine months, in one year at farthest.

Thirdly—They promised us that all the slave States except Delaware would join the Southern Confederacy—that slavery should not only be perpetuated in the States but that it should be extended to all the territories in which the negro could live—that all the grievances occasioned by the non-execution of the Fugitive Slave Law should be speedily redressed—that slave property should be established upon a basis as safe as that of landed property.

Fourthly—They promised us that the new Government should be a mere Confederacy of States [illegible] sovereignty and equal rights—that the States should [illegible] by no such central [illegible] as the [illegible] Government at Washington; that the glorious doctrine of State rights [illegible] taught by Jefferson and Calhoun [illegible] in the new Confederacy—that the sovereignty of the States and their judicial decisions should be sacredly respected.

Fifthly—They promised us the early and permanent establishment of the wealthiest and best Government on earth, whose credit should be better than that of any other nation, whose prosperity and happiness should be the envy of the civilized world.

And lastly they promised us that if war should [illegible] would go to the battlefield and spill [illegible] drop of their blood in the cause of their [illegible] South.

[illegible] have been their promises, what have been their performances? Instead of secession being peaceable [illegible] promised that it would [illegible] given rise to such a war as has never before desolated any country since the barbarians of the North overran the Roman Empire.

[illegible] in the war's ending in six months as they [illegible] should it ensue, it has already lasted more than two years, and if their policy is to be pursued it will last more than two years longer, and notwithstanding their predictions the Yankees have fought on many occasions with a spirit and a determination worthy of their ancestors of the Revolution—worthy of the descendants of those austere old Puritans whose heroic spirit and religious zeal made Oliver Cromwell's army the terror of the civilized world—or of those French Huguenots, who thrice in the sixteenth century contended with heroic spirit and various fortunes against the genius of the house of Lorraine and all the power of the house of Valois. England and France have not recognized us—have not raised the blockade—have not shown us any sympathy nor [illegible] probability that they ever will; and that Cotton is not King is now universally acknowledged. Maryland has not joined the Confederacy nor has Kentucky nor Missouri ever really been with us. Slavery has not only not been perpetuated in the States nor extended into the Territories but Missouri has passed an act of emancipation and Maryland is ready to do so rather than give up her place in the Union, and the last hope of obtaining one foot of the Territories for the purpose of extending slavery has departed from Confederacy [illegible]. The grievances caused by some of the Northern States [illegible] to execute the Fugitive Slave Law have not only not been remedied but more slaves have been lost [illegible] since secession was inaugurated than would have escaped from their masters in the Union for five centuries. And how have they kept their promise that they would respect the sovereignty and rights of the States? Whatever the Government may be in theory, in fact we have [illegible] which almost entirely ignore the existence of the States and disregards [illegible] of their highest tribunals. The great central despotism at Washington, as they were pleased to call it, was at any time previous to the commencement of the secession movement, and even for some time after it had commenced, [illegible] mild [illegible] Government compared with the [illegible] at Richmond, under which we are now living.

Instead of an early and permanent establishment of [illegible] wealthiest and best government in the world with unbounded credit, what have we got? In spite [illegible] victories which they profess to have obtained over the Yankees, they have lost the States of Missouri, Kentucky, Arkansas, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee [illegible] forever, and in all probability Alabama will soon be added to the number. This will [illegible] States out of the original thirteen, and of those five the Yankees have [illegible] of the most important [illegible] of their territory. So far, the Yankees have never failed to hold every place of importance which they have taken, and present indications [illegible] Charleston will soon be added to the number. The campaign of General Lee into Pennsyl-

[illegible] can tell [illegible] time ago they are [illegible] by acre, mile by mile [illegible] Providence [illegible]—we will [illegible] great [illegible] subjugated [illegible].

As to our unbounded credit [illegible] King [illegible] speak [illegible] its most [illegible] parts their promise [illegible] to the war [illegible] I will [illegible] Every [illegible] a few honorable exceptions will [illegible] fight [illegible].

What a deplorable spectacle [illegible] history [illegible] for them.

But it will be said that these guarantees [illegible] obtained from the North. [illegible] to be true and only produce this piece of history to prove that whatever might have been obtained nothing would have been accepted. [illegible] the Congress of the United States [illegible] constitutional majority [illegible] Corwin from the committee of twenty-six [illegible] amend the Constitution as to perpetuate slavery in the States. What stronger guarantees could be given [illegible] States were concerned it would be difficult to conceive. What then would have been left to quarrel about? The Territories? During the session of Congress which closed on the 4th of March 1861 acts were passed to provide temporary Governments for the three remaining Territories [illegible] Colorado, Nevada and Dakota. These acts contain no trace or indication of the Wilmot Proviso nor any other provision against the introduction of slavery, but on the other hand expressly declare, among other things, that no law shall be passed impairing the rights of private property, nor shall any discrimination be made in taxing different kinds of private property [illegible] discrimination [illegible] all property subject to taxation shall be in proportion to the value of the property taxed.

Now when it is considered that all three of these Territories are North of 36 deg. 30 min., and that no new Territory is now owned by the United States [illegible] of that line [illegible] the question may well be asked: What was there worth [illegible] much less fighting about? Here was a settlement of the question in the Territories made by a Republican Congress which gave the South all that up to the time of the Charleston Convention she had ever asked and far more than she could hope [illegible] any event by the same. Indeed I think it must now be apparent that if secession ever could have been effected peaceably it would have been no remedy for the grievances of which they complained. So far as any grievances arising from a failure to obtain a return of our fugitive slaves was concerned I think it must be [illegible] apparent that it would have been an aggravation [illegible] remedy for them. I think all calm and dispassionate men everywhere are now ready to admit that it would have been far better for us to have accepted the terms offered to us and preserved peace [illegible] than to have plunged this [illegible] happy country into the horrors of this desolating war, which has spread a pall over the whole land—has brought mourning into every family—has rendered hundreds of thousands of hearthstones desolate—has filled the land with [illegible] widows and orphans and squalid poverty—has [illegible] and alms houses—has [illegible] many hundreds of thousands of lives and many hundreds of millions of treasure only to [illegible] for which they profess to have [illegible] a thousand times greater jeopardy than ever before.

Such being the condition into which they have brought the country, the question [illegible]. Is there any remedy? A full, complete and adequate remedy there is not, for what can restore the loved ones lost—repair at once the desolation, or remove immediately the mourning from our land? Yet there is a remedy, which with the helping hand of time will accomplish much, very much indeed, and which with the energy that usually follows [illegible] will perhaps remove most of its traces in a half century. This remedy is peace, SPEEDY PEACE! But they say that we are so situated that no proposition for peace can be made by us; that having proclaimed our independence we must fight until it is distinctly acknowledged by the United States or until we are completely subjugated. On the meeting of the British Parliament which took place on the 13th of December 1792 the King, in his speech to the two Houses, intimated his intention of going to war with the French Republic. On moving the address in answer to the speech a memorable debate arose. On this occasion Charles Fox delivered one of those powerful speeches which have made his name immortal, which have forever stamped him as the ablest of British debaters, and the first of British statesmen. In the course of that speech he said: "But we now disdain to negotiate. Why? Because we have no Minister at Paris. Why have we no Minister there? Because France is a Republic! And so we are to pay in blood and treasure of the people for a punctilio. The road of common sense is simple, plain and direct. That of pride and punctilio is as tangled as it is serpentine." In the [illegible] age of Fox I would ask are we [illegible] blood and treasure of the people for [illegible]. Shall we pursue the path of pride and punctilio which is as tangled as it is serpentine or shall we take the simple, plain and direct road of common sense which may lead to the happiest results? From [illegible] the people of that portion of North Carolina bordering for many miles on the Yadkin river, and I believe of the whole State, are in favor of the [illegible].

The one great demand of the people [illegible] part of the State is peace [illegible] upon terms that will not enslave and degrade us. They may perhaps prefer that the independence of the South should be acknowledged, but if this they [illegible] cannot now be obtained [illegible] viewing the situation of affairs, do they [illegible] hope for it in the future. They naturally ask if with [illegible] to any extent, we can hold our own against the armies which the Yankees have now [illegible] how can we contend with [illegible] fresh troops which will soon be in [illegible] their army recruited to a great extent [illegible] its maximum number, by recruits who are constantly arriving in their ports from every country in Europe? But if independence cannot be obtained then they are for any terms that are honorable—any terms [illegible] degrade us. [illegible] willing to compromise upon the terms proposed by Corwin from the Committee of Twenty-six perpetuating slavery in the States, to which I have before alluded. But in what precise way these shall be made or the movement inaugurated I leave to wiser men and better statesmen than myself to propose. I would however suggest [illegible] members [illegible] next [illegible] in favor of an armistice of six months, and in the meantime of submitting all the matters in dispute to a Convention of delegates from all the States North and South [illegible] the people [illegible] such manner as may be agreed [illegible] by the two parties. Others [illegible] who [illegible] that the people of North Carolina should be consulted in their sovereign capacity through a Convention—that the Legislature should submit the question of Convention or no Convention to the people as was done in February, 1861. Such a Convention would [illegible] speak the sentiments of the people of the State, citizens as well as soldiers, as all would be consulted. But I propose nothing definite and only make these suggestions [illegible] bring the matter before the public. I would however most earnestly appeal to the friends of humanity throughout the State to [illegible] their efforts to procure [illegible] peace. In the name of reason, of suffering humanity and of the religion which we profess would I appeal to the public men and statesmen of North Carolina, and especially to that eminent statesman who possesses in a greater degree than all others the confidence of the people of the State and who has recently been elevated to a high place in the Confederate Government, to lend a helping hand and use their influence to bring about an honorable peace. And lastly I would appeal to the ministers and professors of our holy religion to pray constantly without dictation of terms to Almighty God for an honorable peace.

Having but recently occupied a large space in [illegible] columns I [illegible] and will [illegible] after [illegible] my [illegible] to your [illegible]

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to September 16.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 15.—The transport from Hilton Head, S. C., reports the arrival there of the rebel boat Cosmopolitan, which left Morris Island [illegible] evening the 11th, at which time a white flag was floating from Fort Moultrie, and our forces had captured half of James Island. Our monitors were lying between Fort Sumter and Moultrie. Capt. Briggs [illegible] that passed Charleston Bar at 4 P. M. on Saturday, and saw the white flag still flying on Moultrie. The last gun fired from Moultrie was on Tuesday afternoon.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF POTOMAC, Sept. 14.—Pleasanton advanced to the Rapidan where the rebels were in position with infantry and cavalry to prevent our crossing. Our casualties yesterday were two killed and [illegible] wounded, among the latter was Gen. Custer, commanding a brigade of Kilpatrick's division. He was wounded while gallantly charging the enemy, in which attack three guns were captured.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Special dispatches say the Mexican Minister left Washington for Mexico, placing his files in the hands of the Peruvian Minister. He claims to be still representative of the Juarez Government.

Richmond papers say the publication of the Raleigh Standard will be resumed in a few days.

The Richmond Enquirer has the following: Gov. Vance, of N. C., has issued a proclamation called forth by lawless and treasonable menaces made at the recent peace meeting held in that State. He warns the people of the dangerous consequences of a persistance in their course, beseeching them to abstain from any further resistance to the enforcement of the conscription and the law for the collection of taxes, and calls on them to abandon the miserable demonstrations they are making of resistance to the laws which will be enforced.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 15.—In the capture of Chattanooga we took two steamboats and thirty pontoons, very few stores, and no artillery or prisoners. The works are very strong.

PORTLAND, ME., Sept. 15.—Returns from 182 towns give Curry the Republican candidate, 14,000 majority. The same towns last year gave the Republicans a majority of a little over 4,000. This includes about five-eighths of the aggregate vote of the State. The towns to be heard from gave the Republicans last year a majority. The increase in the vote over last year is about 25,000. The House will stand about 100 Republicans to 80 Democrats. The Senate will be probably unanimous Republican.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Times' special dispatch says it is reported that the rebels have six vessels of war at Richmond, some of which are said to be clad with railroad iron and modeled like the Merrimac.

Gen. Gilmore has been promoted to Major of Engineers in the regular army.

CAIRO, Sept. 15.—From below we learn that the marine brigade captured at Bolivar three rebel paymasters with thirty men and $2,000,000, to pay the troops at Little Rock.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 13.—The cavalry and mounted infantry of the 16th army corps, under direction of Gen. Crary, have been active during the past week, going as far South as Tallahatchie, and stampeding rebel cavalry into Grenada and Okolona. Gen. Crary is the one who scattered the rebels in the vicinity of Jackson, and captured the rebel mail with correspondence confirming the reports that Johnston was reinforcing Bragg.

RAPPAHANNOCK, Sept. 14.—Citizens of Culpepper say that Stuart with 6,000 rebel cavalry was there on Saturday.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 15.—A Leavenworth dispatch says Gen. Blunt at last accounts was at Fort Gibson, preparing to start for Fort Scott. In the recent campaign he marched 250 miles in nine days, fought two [illegible] and reclaimed from the rebels 1,000,000 square miles of territory. Refugees from rebel conscription were coming into Blunt's lines by hundreds. More than 100 Union men have been shot and hung at Fort Smith since the rebellion broke out. Fort Smith will be the headquarters of operations during the coming winter.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—President Lincoln will soon issue a proclamation suspending the writ of habeas corpus in all cases arising in military circles. This matter was considered and resolved upon at a Cabinet meeting to-day.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Roanoke with dates from Havana to the 9th and Vera Cruz to the 7th has arrived. There was a great excitement [illegible] in Mexico. The Peruvian Minister had received his passports and was ordered to leave the country for having written to Juarez. It was rumored that Minister Corwin had been tendered his passports. This is not confirmed. The French convoy from the City of Mexico to Vera Cruz was captured by guerrillas near [illegible]. The greater part of the guard were killed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16th.—A dispatch from Cyrus W. Field, dated London, Sept. 5th, says at a meeting of directors of the Atlantic Telegraph Company the [illegible] Glass & [illegible] to manufacture and lay down in the summer of next year a good submarine telegraph cable between Ireland and Newfoundland was unanimously adopted.

Last evening's Post says: We heard to-day of the shipment for Palmyra of the first one hundred tons of railroad iron for the Union Pacific Railroad, eastern division.

A late Charleston Mercury says the rebel casualties in the struggle for the possession of Morris Island amounted to 700 killed, wounded and missing.

A special says the department feels assured that the late pamphlet on Mexican affairs, written with the view of the recognition of the Southern Confederacy, did not emanate from any important personage in France.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Gen. King has arrested all males [illegible] at Fairfax [illegible] and vicinity and sent them to the Old Capitol prison. Among them are several leading men who took active part in forcing the State into rebellion.

Last Monday morning as a party of fugitive negroes were making their way to Washington from their masters' homes in Ann Arundel and Calvert counties through Centreville, a patrol consisting of citizens from Prince George county attempted to stop them. The slaves resisted, and some of them being armed with old flint lock muskets, attempted to use them, but the muskets hung fire and wouldn't go. The patrollers then fired on the negroes, wounding five, two of them badly. Other parties coming to the aid of the patrolers, most of the negroes were secured and carried off by their masters who had by this time overtaken them.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Times' special says Gen. Pleasanton reached Rapidan river at Raccoon ford Monday afternoon after considerable skirmishing between Culpepper and that point. Up to that time no rebel infantry had been met with, though a heavy force [illegible] which had been driven back by our forces. [illegible] Monday the enemy [illegible] resisting all attempts to cross. It was supposed a force of rebel infantry [illegible] point to resist crossing. [illegible] graphs from Fortress Monroe that [illegible] of the rebel cavalry and army are at Richmond, where [illegible] that there is now [illegible] consequence in Meade's front. [illegible] will probably ascertain the correctness [illegible] in a day or two. [illegible] now running [illegible] Culpepper from Washington carrying supplies to our troops. [illegible] Lee's army has been withdrawn [illegible] toward Charleston and [illegible] Chattanooga. This is now the generally [illegible].

The steamer [illegible] Bar on the night of the 12th, and brings dispatches [illegible] the rebels have two 15 inch guns [illegible] is still garrisoned and [illegible] the fort did not shoot [illegible] made to take it since the [illegible] monitor Patapsco [illegible] repairs.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 12.—Gen. Smith [illegible] 4,000 men and [illegible] batteries, [illegible] to reinforce Gen. Steele. Reports from Steele are favorable.

The expedition under Stevenson [illegible] returned to Vicksburg.

The expedition against Harrisburg was successful. The rebels [illegible] the direction of Shreveport, and blew up their magazines.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14th.—An official letter from Secretary Seward to [illegible] Minister is published in the Tribune this morning. It reviews what successes our arms have accomplished against rebellion and shows the present status of our Government. It closes by saying: You will see, facts are [illegible] in such a way as [illegible] who seek a renewal [illegible] material prosperity through the restoration of peace, that the quickest and shortest way to gain that desirable end is to withdraw your support and favor from the insurgents and to leave the adjustment of our domestic controversies exclusively with the people of the United States.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14.—Dr. Gunn, deputy United States Surveyor, leaves on Thursday next to succeed Victor Smith as Collector at Port Townsend, Washington Territory.

LA GRANDE.—A town with this name is fast building up, and becoming an important trading point. It is located immediately at the foot of the mountains and [illegible] on the direct line of all the travel that goes by way of Umatilla Landing, must become a place of considerable importance. It already numbers seventy five buildings, many of them business houses, and is growing rapidly. This new town is the point of supply for the settlers in Grande Ronde Valley, and this, together with the trade of comers and goers will always keep it a living place.

San Francisco [illegible]

WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS.—Man Lee, [illegible] Chinaman arrested a day or two [illegible] by Marshal Clark on suspicion of being [illegible] the party which stole some money from Messrs. Carry & Andrews, at La Grande, was brought before his Honor E. D. Shattuck, Judge of this Circuit, at Chambers, yesterday, upon a writ of habeas corpus sued out by Wa Kee, a China merchant of this city. His Court after hearing the evidence and arguments on the case, discharged the prisoner.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Charles Mahon was brought before Recorder McC[illegible] yesterday and acknowledged that he had taken just a little too much of the essence of rye which made him rather boisterous. He was relieved of five dollars and costs, and sent on his way rejoicing.

Peter Raymon was also brought before this Court charged with larceny, but the complaint was withdrawn.

KEEP IT UP.—The Street Commissioner yesterday set the property holders at work cleaning the streets in front of their premises, which gives our streets a clean and healthy appearance for one day at least. This is a good move in the right direction, and we hope it will be kept up. We would suggest to our Commissioner, while he is at and cleaning up, that he examine a number of yards, and especially the China wash houses, where all manner of filth and slops is poured under the floors of their buildings causing an intolerable stench in their vicinity.

EMIGRANTS ARRIVED.—Some forty five emigrants arrived on the Hood last evening. They seemed to be enjoying good health and spirits and are going up the valley.

GOLD DUST.—100 pounds of gold dust was brought down by Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger, last evening, on the Wilson G. Hunt.

THEATRE.—Notwithstanding there were two other places of amusement open last night, there was a large audience present at the Theater, to witness the celebrated [illegible] The Stranger, in which Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne personated the great character of Mrs. Haller almost to perfection, while Mr. W[illegible] drew [illegible] of the Stranger [illegible]. To-night Bulwer's magnificent drama of "Lady of Lyons" will be [illegible] Mrs. Hayne as Pauline, Miss Mitchell as Widow Melnotte and Mr. Waldron as Claude. This play is familiar to most of our theatergoers and is the most beautiful play we have ever witnessed.

WAR! WAR!! WAR!!!—Wisely's celebrated War Diorama will open to-night at the Opera House.

THE ORDER PROTECTING BLACK SOLDIERS.—The order of the President giving notice that any wrongs done to our soldiers by the enemy will be atoned for by the rebel prisoners in our hands, is accepted by every one as just and proper. It means protection to our negro soldiers, and such protection the government was bound in all honor to furnish. Having induced the blacks to enlist as soldiers the government must require for them at the hands of the rebels such treatment as the laws of war make proper for its white soldiers to receive. There are rumors that our negro soldiers have not thus far been treated as the laws of war require—that at Port Hudson no negro prisoners could be found when the place surrendered, though a number of Union negroes had been taken prisoners during the siege, and that at James Island the enemy gave no quarter to the blacks. These rumors have grown almost into certainty, and humanity as well as self respect required some action on the part of the government like that which has now been taken. When the rebels understand that their own Southerners can be hung and shot as well as our negro troops they will hardly be disposed to continue a trade in which one of the chivalry is as cheap as a despised "nigger."

CAN THE PRESIDENT RE-ENSLAVE FREEDMEN?—The Washington Chronicle is permitted to make the following extract from a letter of Robert J. Walker (now in England) to a friend in that city. We are glad to know that there is not the slightest reason to believe that President Lincoln has any thought of recalling the Emancipation Proclamation, or that he will be a party to the re-enslavement of the freedmen made free by the Proclamation:

"Since the victory at Gettysburg, and the fall of Vicksburg and Port Hudson, suggestions appear that President Lincoln should recall the Emancipation Proclamation. This would ruin the cause here. The Proclamation was legal, and as such it did emancipate the slaves, and they are now free. How can Mr. Lincoln re-enslave them? The [illegible] irrevocable even by Almighty power. Besides, it would be a breach of faith to the slaves, and in view of their heroic [illegible] in battle equally unwise and unjust."

THE STORY OF TWO BULLETS.—The Vicksburg correspondent of the M[illegible] narrates the following singular incident:

I lately saw at the headquarters of [illegible] Slack's brigade two Minie balls [illegible] once told a history [illegible] of English [illegible] our dear brethren [illegible] brethren in America. [illegible] the Springfield [illegible] former was fired from [illegible] our skirmishers. Writ of Habeas Corpus.—Min Lee, the Chinaman arrested a day or two since by Marshal Clark, on suspicion of being one of the party which stole some money from Messrs Curry & Andrews, at La Grande, was brought before his Honor E D Shattuck, Judge of this Circuit, at Chambers yesterday, upon a writ of habeas corpus sued out by Wa Kee, a China merchant of this city. The Court, after hearing the evidence and arguments on the case, discharged the prisoner.

Recorder's Court.—Charles Mahan was brought before Recorder McCoy, yesterday, and acknowledged that he had taken just a little too much of the essence of rye which made him rather boisterous. He was relieved of five dollars and costs and sent on his way rejoicing.

Peter Reymon was also brought before this Court, charged with larceny, but the complaint was withdrawn.

Keep it Up.—The Street Commissioner yesterday, set the property holders at work cleaning the streets in front of their premises, which gives our streets a clean and healthy appearance for one day at least. This is a good move in the right direction, and we hope it will be kept up. We would suggest to our Commissioner, while he is around cleansing us, that he examine a number of yards, and especially the China wash houses, where all manner of filth and slop is poured under the floors of their buildings, causing an intolerable stench in their vicinity.

Emigrants Arrived.—Some forty five emigrants arrived on the Hunt last evening. They seemed to be enjoying good health and spirits, and are going up the valley.

Gold Dust.—100 pounds of gold dust was brought down by Wells, Fargo & Co's messenger, last evening, on the Wilson G Hunt.

Theatre.—Notwithstanding there were two other places of amusement open last night, there was a large audience present at the Theater, to witness the celebrated [illegible] "The Stranger," in which Mrs Julia [illegible] Hayne personated the great character of M [illegible] Haller almost to perfection, while Mr W [illegible] rendition of the Stranger was excellent. One was a rifle ball of English manufacture, smuggled [illegible] our dear brethren in Britain [illegible] brethren in America. The other was a National ball of the Springfield [illegible] pattern. The former was fired from a rifle pit at Jackson at our skirmishers. The latter was fired from our line of skirmishers at the rifle pit. They met midway in the air, were welded by the impact and fell harmlessly to the ground. They are now firm friends, sticking [illegible] to the other closer than a brother or a [illegible].

KENNEDY'S CORNER, Wayne co Ind, Oct 3 1863

Messrs A L Scovill & Co —I write to let you know what BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA has done for me. Last [illegible] I was attacked with Inflammatory Rheumatism attended with great pain. I became bed ridden and was helpless as a child. The pain was so great when I moved that it seemed as if it would take my very life! In this way I suffered for seven long weeks or more, and thought that I could never recover. I was recommended to try BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA and I did so. I took it internally, and had my body rubbed freely with it as long as I could bear several times a day. My pains began to give way. I used it [illegible] using the medicine and I began to have strength and appetite and am able to be about again. It has been a great blessing to me in relieving my sufferings.

Writ of Habeas Corpus.—Man Lee, the Chinaman arrested a day or two since by Marshal Clark, on suspicion of being one of the party which stole some money from Messrs. Curry & Andrews, at La Grande, was brought before his Honor E. D. Shattuck, Judge of this Circuit, at Chambers, yesterday, upon a writ of habeas corpus sued out by We Kee, a China merchant of this city. The Court, after hearing the evidence and arguments on the case, discharged the prisoner.

Recorder's Court.—Charles Mahon was brought before Recorder McCoy, yesterday, and acknowledged that he had taken just a little too much of the essence of rye which made him rather boisterous. He was relieved of five dollars and costs, and sent on his way

Peter Raymon was also brought before this Court, charged with larceny, but the complaint was withdrawn.

Keep it Up.—The Street Commissioner, yesterday, set the property holders at work cleaning the streets in front of their premises, which gives our streets a clean and healthy appearance for one day at least. This is a good move in the right direction, and we hope it will be kept up. We would suggest to our Commissioner, while he is around cleaning up, that he examine a number of yards, and by the China wash houses, where all manner of filth and slop is poured under the floors of their buildings, causing an intolerable stench in their vicinity.

Emigrants Arrived.—Some forty-five emigrants arrived on the Hunt last evening. They seemed to be enjoying good health and spirits, and are going up the valley.

Gold Dust.—100 pounds of gold dust was brought down by Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger, last evening, on the Wilson G. Hunt

Theatre.—Notwithstanding there were two other places of amusement open last night, there was a large audience present at the Fav[illegible], to witness the celebrated [illegible] "The Stranger," in which Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne personated the [illegible] Miss Butler also [illegible] Mr. Waldron's rendition of the Stranger was excellent. To-night, Bulwer's [illegible] drama of the "Lady of Lyons" will be presented, Mrs. Hayne as Pauline, Miss Mitchell as Widow Melnotte, and Mr. Waldron as Claude. The play is familiar to most of our theater goers, and is the most beautiful play we have ever

War! War!! War!!!—Wisely's celebrated War Dramas will open to night at the Opera House.

The Order Protecting Black Soldiers.—The order of the President giving notice that any wrongs done to our soldiers by the enemy will be atoned for by the rebel prisoners in our hands, is accepted by every one as just and proper. It means protection to our negro troops, and such protection the government was bound in all honor to furnish. Having induced the blacks to enlist as soldiers, the government must require for them at the hands of the rebels such treatment as the laws of war make proper for its white soldiers. There are rumors that our negro troops have not thus far been treated as the laws of war require—that at Port Hudson no negro prisoners could be found when the place [illegible], though a number of Union negroes had been taken prisoners during the siege, and that at James Island the enemy gave no quarter to the blacks. These rumors have grown almost to certainty, and humanity as well as self respect required some action on the part of the government like that which has now been taken. When the rebels understand that their own Southerners can be hung and shot as well as our negro troops, they will hardly be disposed to continue a trade in which one of the chivalry is as cheap as a despised "nigger."

On the President Re-Enslaving Freedmen?—The Washington Chronicle is permitted to make the following extract from a letter of Robert J. Walker (now in England) to a friend in that city. We are glad to know that there is not the slightest reason to believe that President Lincoln has any thought of recalling the Emancipation Proclamation, or that he will be a party to the re-enslavement of the freedmen made free by the Proclamation:

"Since the victory at Gettysburg, and the fall of Vicksburg and Port Hudson, suggestions appear that President Lincoln should recall the Emancipation Proclamation. This would ruin the cause here. The Proclamation was legal, and as such it did emancipate the slaves, and they are now free. How can Mr. Lincoln re-enslave them? The past is irrevocable even by Almighty power. Besides, it would be a breach of faith to the slaves, and, in view of their heroic conduct in battle, equally unwise and unjust."

The Story of Two Bullets.—The Vicksburg correspondent of the Missouri Republican narrates the following singular incident:

I lately saw at the headquarters of Colonel Slack's brigade, two Minie bullets which [illegible] a told a history. One was a [illegible] of English manufacture, smuggled [illegible] our dear brethren in Britain to shoot their brethren in America. The other was a National ball of the Springfield rifle type. The former was fired from a rifle pit at Jacks[illegible] our skirmishers. The latter was fired from our line of skirmishers at the rifle pit. They met midway in the air, were welded by the compact and fell harmlessly to the ground. They are now firm friends, sticking each to the other closer than a brother or a lover.

Richmond, Ind, May 1, 1850.

Messrs. A. L. Scovill & Co.—Gents: It is with pleasure that I write you and let you know the result of DR. MOTT'S PILLS on my daughter. ☞ In Every Age of the World the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, nor to the doctors for reforms in medical ... among physicians. [illegible] precedent is ever as found to militate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men have ever exhibited to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than DR. SHALLENBERGER'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system is acknowledged by all. Do you prefer a speedy and effectual cure to a regular and scientific run of disease? Try the Cholagogue, and the object is accomplished. Then tell your suffering neighbor what it has done for you, that it may do the same for him.

Read what amount of Pain and Suffering can be saved by the use of DR BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA

Kennedy's Corner, Wayne Co., Ind., Oct. 3, 1863.

Messrs. A. L. Scovill & Co:—I write to let you know what BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA has done for me. Last January I was attacked with Inflammatory Rheumatism, attended with great pain. I became bed-ridden, and was helpless as a child! The pain was so great when I moved that it seemed as if it would take my very life! In this way I suffered for seven long weeks or more, and thought that I could never recover. I was recommended to try BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA, and I did so. I took it internally, and had my body rubbed freely with it as long as I could bear, several times a day. My pains began to give way immediately on using the medicine, and I began to have strength and appetite, and am able to be about again. It has been a great blessing to me in relieving my sufferings. "Missing."

When will you come back again, papa,
To sit in the old arm-chair
And read the Bible to mother and me,
And join in our evening prayer?
Oh, say, dear, you cruel papa,
If you knew how we grieve to-night,
Wouldn't you leave that hateful war,
And come to your home so bright?

When will he come back again, mamma?
I only wish I could read
That letter you moisten so with tears—
But my prattle you scarcely heed.
Soldiers in crowds are passing by,
As I gaze down the lighted street,
And I long to ask them about papa,
As they hurry their friends to greet.

Don't you remember the day, mamma,
When the news from Fort Sumter came,
That the gallant old Major Anderson
Had won such a glorious name?
When papa wore such a bright, bright sword
At the head of his company?
And how proud we felt as he marched along,
When he smiled on you and me?

Don't you remember the words he said
When he kissed us the night before,
And sat on the side of my little bed,
To tell me about the war?
How can I ever forget his look,
As he mournfully said to you,
"Dear, dear Nellie, I love you both,
But I love the Union too!"

"Nellie, when on the battle-field
I share in the conflict wild,
I shall be thinking of you alone—
You and our darling child.
Wherever our Union banner floats,
There will my station be,
Till the rebel hordes are in full retreat
From the field of victory!"

Yes, and he promised to write, mamma,
But only one letter came;
Why don't he write to his little girl,
If only to write my name?
How he would grieve if he knew you cried
And looked at his picture so!
Surely, oh, surely he'd hasten home
With the crowd that is passing now.

As they pass the door to-night, mamma,
They whisper the name "Bull Run;"
Is that the name of a battle-field?
Have the Union soldiers won?
They pass along with a saddened look,—
Their voices are hoarse and low,—
It was not thus when they marched away,
Two or three months ago!

Don't let me make you cry, mamma,—
My tears are all dried and gone,
Now I must say my little prayers,
And sleep till the morning dawn.
God in Heaven! look down to-night,—
Watch over my father dear;
Shelter him in the stormy fight,
And pilot him safely here!

Ah, you cruel, you dear papa,
If you knew how we grieve to-night,
Wouldn't you leave the battle-field
And come to your home so bright?
When will you come back again, papa,
To sit in the old arm-chair,
And read the Bible at night once more,
And join in our evening prayer?

THEODORE J. ECKERSON.

A GEOGRAPHICAL RECITATION.—"Now, then," shouted the red-headed school master, "the first class in mental geography will group themselves together. Toe the crack—heads up like new yeast, and don't you talk through your noses. Now, what is geography?"

"Don't know."

"That's right, sonny—never tell a lie. What is the surface of the earth?"

"Outside."

"Bully for you, sweet William! Which preponderates—that is, which is the largest—land or water?"

"In the rainy season, water; in times of drouth, land."

"What is the big water called?"

"Old ocean."

"Whom does it benefit?"

"The secretary of the navy, and his relatives in the ship trade."

"How so?"

"They sell rotten ships to the government for ten times their worth."

"What is a peculiar characteristic of the ocean?"

"It is different from Congress."

"How so, my red-topped student?"

"It never becomes corrupt."

"Very well for an orphan. You may go kiss the girls and emulate the ocean. What is a channel?"

"The place a fellow oils up with whisky just before he is going to make a political speech."

"Correct; glad to see you in such spirits. What is a cape?"

"A fur thing worn by ladies."

"Observing youth, thou hast won a capable name. What is a cave?"

"The last election in New York."

"Bright-eyed gazelle, I see, but you see more. I'll take half your pie to-day at noon. What are the principal productions of the temperate zones?"

"Ten-pin alleys, rotgut, the Maine law and confirmed drunkards."

"Who is the governor of a State?"

"The man who furnishes the most money for the election, or the clerk who has the handsomest wife."

"Steady there! What kind of currency is used in the United States?"

"Pill labels, fine comb teeth, watermelon seeds, pieces of egg shells, old buttons, nail-parings, bus tickets, knot-holes and postage stamps."

"What is a volcano?"

"A mountain with a fire-place in it."

"What is a plain?"

"A thing used by the carpenters."

"What kind of cloth is mostly worn by the people of Green Bay?"

"Green baize."

"Here, Gustavus, none of that! First class may emerge hence if it will keep off the ice."

The class leave the school house with a loud yell—and the teacher makes love to the girls.

"WHAT CAN I DO?"—A young lady was heard to say, "I wish I could do something for my country; I would willingly become a nurse in a hospital, but I have not the physical strength. What can I do?"

"You can sing," replied a friend.

"Yes, I can sing; but what of that?"

"Go to one of the hospitals and sing for the soldiers."

The idea seemed to please her. She accompanied a friend who was long used to such visits, and who introduced her by saying to the patients—

"Here is a young lady who has come to sing for you."

At the mere announcement every face was aglow with animation—every eye was riveted upon her with expectant pleasure. She sang a few songs, commencing with the glorious "Star Spangled Banner." As the thrilling notes of that song rang through the apartment, one poor man, who had been given up by the physicians as an almost hopeless case, half raised himself in his cot, leaned his head upon his hand, and drank in every note like so much nectar. The effect was electrical. From that hour he began to amend, and finally recovered.

A LITTLE OVERWEIGHTED.—Those who visit the sick soldiers and do good in the hospitals, occasionally get a gleam of fun among all the sad scenes; for any wag who has been to the wars seldom loses his humor, though he may have lost all else save that and his life. Witness a sketch from life:

C——, good soul, after taking all the little comforts he could afford to give to the wounded soldiers, went into the hospitals for the fortieth time, the other day, with his mite, consisting of several papers of fine cut chewing tobacco—solace for the wounded, as he called it. He came to one bed, where a poor fellow lay cheerfully humming a tune, and studying out faces on the papered wall.

"Got a fever?" asked C.

"No," answered the soldier.

"Got a cold?"

"Yes, cold lead—like the d——l."

"Where?"

"Well, to tell you the truth, it's pretty well scattered. First, there's a bullet in my right arm—they haint dug that out yet. One in my leg—hit the bone—that fellow hurts. One through my hand—that fell out. And I tell you what, friend, with all this lead in me, I feel, generally speaking, a little heavy all over."

C—— lightened his woes with a double quantity of solace.

DEMOCRATIC OPINIONS OF THE NEW YORK RIOTERS.—Gov. Seymour says they are his "immediate constituents" and "friends." Justice McCunn calls them "those innocent people." The Daily News calls them "the populace;" the Herald "the people." The Express characterizes them as "enraged and outraged conscripts." The World describes them as the "laboring population." The Boston Courier says they are "exasperated fellow citizens" and "misguided persons," who should not be regarded as "mere enemies of law and order."

The country regards them as murderers and rebels, against whom, offenders as they are against law and order, every penalty of the law should be directed.

A FELLOW went some time since, into the store of a fashionable dress maker, "Have you any skirts?" he asked, with a serious emphasis. "Plenty of them," was the reply. "What is the lowest per cord?" said the chap. "A cord?" exclaimed the woman, in astonishment. "Yes, about a cord. Up in our diggins, the petticoats give out. I see you advertise 'corded skirts,' and I thought while my hand was in, that I would take what you had corded up."

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable,) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood-gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of Letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
and
CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by ...

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and WILL HAVE A Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.
